POSITION DESCRIPTION

Under the general direction of the Division Chief for the Administrative Services Division the Bureau Director for the department's Privacy, Security, and Disclosure Bureau serves as the department's Chief Security Officer (CSO). As required by state law, the CSO receives technical guidance from the department's Chief Information Officer (CIO) on policy matters that have an information technology (IT) focus. The CSO also reports to the Executive Officer (EO) and Governance Council on the most critical and sensitive security and privacy matters impacting the department, and is responsible for related risk management oversight.

The CSO serves as a member of the department's Senior Management Team and chairs the Privacy & Security Action Committee. The CSO is responsible for developing and implementing information security, physical security, and privacy policies and also develops policies to protect confidential data owned and used by the department. The Director will have leadership interactions with both internal and external entities in the development of security and privacy policies, processes and procedures. This position also serves as the Information Security Officer (ISO) for the Government Operations Agency and the Business, Consumer Services & Housing Agency.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a current State civil service employee with permanent civil service status, as defined in Government Code Section 18546.

Or II

Government Code Section 18990.

Or III

Must be a current or former nonelected exempt employee of the Executive Branch of government who resigned or was released from service within the last 12 months, and with two or more consecutive years of service (excluding those positions for which the salaries are set by statute) as defined by Government Code Section 18992.

Or IV

Must be a person retired from the United States military, honorably discharged from active military duty with a service-connected disability, or honorably discharged from active duty as defined in Government Code Section 18991.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Applicants must demonstrate the ability to perform high administrative and policy – influencing functions effectively. Such overall ability requires possession of most of the following more specific knowledge and abilities:

(1) Knowledge of the organization and functions of California State Government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating groups; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; principles and practices of policy formulation and development; and personnel management techniques; the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives; and a manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

(2) Ability to plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary professional and administrative staff; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislature and Executive branches; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; and prepare and review reports; and effectively contribute to the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from the following kinds of experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and/or evaluation of program policies (experience may have been paid or volunteer; in State service, other government settings, or in a private organization):

CEA Level A Responsible for broad administrative and program activities, including the execution and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Level B Responsible for extensive managerial and program administration or broad program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Level C Responsible for extensive highly professional influence and contributes to program, policy, and the methods to provide professional services needed to set policies, to meet the mission of the State department and often exercising technical and or professional skills that are required at this level.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATION(S)

In addition to evaluating each candidate's relative ability, as demonstrated by the quality and breadth of experience, the following job-related factors will provide the basis for competitively evaluating each candidate.

1. Knowledge of strategic planning processes including assessing organizational strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats, obtaining input from staff, customers and stakeholders and developing action plans incorporating all relevant information.
2. Skill to obtain the relevant facts and information needed in a crisis, convey a sense of confidence and commitment to a successful outcome and earn the trust of others.
3. Skill to develop challenging but achievable goals and performance measures that advance the organization's mission in a meaningful way.
4. Ability to influence others toward a common goal, by building consensus and getting buy-in from others on plans and proposals, including enlisting third party support.
5. Ability to think and respond positively by being open-minded, enthusiastic, patient, trusting, approachable, available, and flexible, adjusting approaches to suit different people and situations.
6. Ability to consider problems and opportunities from a global perspective and their relevance and application to departmental operations (i.e., ability to see the "big picture").
7. Ability to think in an enterprise manner and consider the overall impact to the Department when program planning, managing operations and making decisions.
8. Ability to engage staff in a collaborative way to empower them and create a positive work environment and increase productivity.
9. Ability to model the Department's stated values and set high personal standards for ethical behavior.
10. Ability to make critical and timely decisions in difficult or ambiguous situations, exercising sound judgment and reasoning before acting.
11. Ability to anticipate and prevent breaches in confidentiality and/or security.
12. Ability to recognize risks, anticipate potential threats or opportunities and plan accordingly by developing mitigation strategies and ongoing risk monitoring and evaluation.
13. Ability to recognize when change is required, be resourceful, and take initiative to involve the proper people in determining the feasibility of change and the best course of action.
14. Results Oriented: Exhibits a strong sense of urgency about solving problems and accomplishing work.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

A minimum rating of 70% must be attained to obtain list eligibility. Hiring interviews may be conducted with the most qualified candidates. All candidates will receive written notification of their examination results. The result of this examination will be used only to fill the position of Director, Privacy, Security and Disclosure Bureau, with the FRANCHISE TAX BOARD. Applications will be retained for twelve months.

The Results of this examination will be used only to fill this position and may be used to fill subsequent vacancies for this position for a period of up to twelve months.

The examination process will consist of a standard State application (Form 678), resume, and Statement of Qualifications evaluation.

The Statement of Qualifications will be used to evaluate your education and experience as it relates to the minimum qualifications, knowledge, skill and abilities, and may also serve as documentation of each candidate's ability to present information clearly and concisely in writing since this is a critical factor to successful job performance. Therefore, it is to your advantage to invest the time and effort to completely describe your knowledge, skills and abilities. Failure to demonstrate sound organizational structure, clarity, and correct mechanics (spelling, grammar, and punctuation) will result in your Statement of Qualifications being disqualified.

All candidates will be ranked competitively and notified of examination results. Based on the screening committee's evaluation of the competitive group, interviews may be conducted as part of the examination process. (Hiring interviews may be conducted with only the most qualified candidates if it is determined necessary in order to make a selection.)

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

U.S. Military veterans must attach a legible copy of his/her veteran's discharge (DD214) or other official discharge documents, showing your enlistment and discharge dates, branch of service, and character of service (i.e., Type of Discharge).

All application materials must be postmarked or received by the Examination Unit by the final filing date. Faxes will be accepted [(916) 845-0515], however; the originals must be received prior to the start of the examination.

Examination materials personally delivered, received via U.S. Postal Service, or any other delivery service after the final filing date will not be accepted and cannot be returned pursuant to California Code of Regulations 174.

Interested applicants must submit:

- A completed Standard State Application (Form 678).
- A "Statement of Qualifications". The Statement is a narrative discussion of how the candidate's education, training, experience, and skills meet the minimum and desirable qualifications and qualify them for the position. The Statement of Qualifications serves as a documentation of each candidate's ability to present information clearly and concisely in writing and should be typed and no more than two pages in length, single-spaced, using a 12 - point font.
- Resumes do not take the place of the Statement of Qualifications.
- Cover letters do not take the place of the Statement of Qualifications.
- Statement of Qualifications should specifically address each of the Desirable Qualifications.
- Applicants who fail to submit the Statement of Qualifications will be eliminated from this examination process.
